

"Rīgas satiksme" has launched a special Support programme for those having suffered in road accidents in which public transport is involved. As part of the programme, every participant has the right to receive a free psychological support. The Support programme of "Rīgas satiksme" aims to establish a closer link between the company and its clients to minimize negative effects from road accidents involving public transport, which people often experience after living through a crisis situation or a state of shock.

To join the Support programme, please contact "Rīgas satiksme" by calling toll-free information phone or send an e-mail to info@rigassatiksme.lv. Please don't forget to give:

- your name and surname;
- contact phone number;
- road accident description (date, time, route No. etc.).

Support programme contacts. Information phone: 20361862; e-mail address: info@rigassatiksme.lv; address: Vestienas Street 35, Riga, LV-1035.

Support programme experts will contact you after identifying the accident!
